About AUS

The American University in Switzerland is one of Switzerland's leading institutions of higher learning. It is situated in La Tour-de-Peilz on the beautiful shores of Lake Geneva, which is close to the Olympic Capital Lausanne and the city of Geneva, the center for diplomacy. Throughout its 31-year history, AUS has prepared international business students with the knowledge, tools and training of today to be positive contributors to the general management of any business organization of tomorrow.

Through our dynamic business programs and specializations, AUS offers students a tailored education in a multicultural and progressive environment, where cutting-edge theory connects to practical application.
